"I therefore recommend that all of these indictments as to both of these defendants be dismissed."

All the indictments were for grand larceny and arose out of the transactions of the firm of Grant & Ward. It is said that Ward has been anxious to have these old indictments dismissed, in order that he might make application for a seat in the Stock Exchange, which he could not do as long as the indictments were pending.

A member of the Stock Exchange said this afternoon, however, that Ferdinand Ward had not the slightest chance of ever securing admission to the Exchange, indictments or no indictments. The report that he intended to make amplication for membership was ridiculed.
